One of the best, if not the best, Lennon cuts in history, "A Day In The Life" has him putting together seemingly unconnected bits and pieces until it reached a critical mass that was complemented by his bandmates. The thickness of the arrangement provides a contrast to the simplicity of Lennon's initial approach that found its way concluding one of the most acclaimed albums of all time.

8 Iconic John Lennon Songs - I Love Classic Rock

If there's one thing you can call The Beatles' John Lennon it is a rocker. The singer and songwriter may have topped the pop charts for the majority of his career but deep down inside he was far more comfortable with thrashing on his guitar and screaming blue murder down the microphone than he was delivering a touching and sincere ballad.
