The Crucible. Here is all the invisible world, caught, defined, and calculated. In these books the Devil stands stripped of all his brute disguises. Here are all your familiar spirits – your incubi and succubi; your witches that go by land, by air, and by sea; your wizards of the night and of the day. Have no fear now – we shall find him out if he has come among us, and I mean to crush him utterly if he has shown his face!

The Crucible: Reverend John Hale Quotes | SparkNotes

The Crucible We burn a hot fire here; it melts down all concealment. Danforth's arrival in Act 3 raises the stakes for the residents of Salem. He is there to convene trials of the accused, so when he tells John and the others he'll "burn a hot fire," he means it.

The Crucible: Deputy Governor Danforth Quotes | SparkNotes

The Crucible. There be no blush about my name.... [Elizabeth Proctor] hates me, uncle, she must, for I would not be her slave. It's a bitter woman, a lying, cold, sniveling woman, and I will not work for such a woman! Abigail snaps this line at her uncle, the Reverend Parris, early in the first act of the play. Parris has questioned her about the rumors going around Salem that she somehow behaved improperly while employed as a maid at the Proctors' farm.
